Nipazen (Nicole Bally & Patrick Vuillaume) are known to be a pairing that manifest caring, sensitive, new age styled music that is guaranteed to create a soothing narrative, but also to be able to take the listener on a voyage of beauty through their music, that is entirely true about their latest offering entitled Parallel Universe.

The impressive Relax Ocean begins our sojourn within these realms, a gentle ambience can be found here with a slight hint of natural sounds, and a lush colourful narrative on keyboards makes it simply the idyllic opening offering you would expect and delight in, to begin a musical voyage with.

We can also be entertained by the sparkling offering of Night and the scenic pastiche and textures of the quite beautiful Velvet Dream, a track that would turn out to be one of my personal favourites.

The percussive energy within the piece Full Moon danced perfectly with the keyboards and created a gentle change in pace and tempo for us to enjoy. We can also enjoy moments of deeply moving compositions, ones that would literally touch our soul like Love Emotion, partner that with a track from earlier on in the album called Nostalgia, you will then find a true example of sensitivity that simply cannot be denied.

Parallel Universe is a true album bathed in classic new age tones and sounds, but it's even more than that, as its ambience and textured compositions truly gives us one of the most chilled albums of the year, and that cannot be a bad way to end 2019. Nipazen have indeed manifested something that the fans and listeners are going to enjoy bathing in and as such one that is easy for me to recommend.
