After her huge success with her last single, the chart topping My Heart Forever, Cadence Spalding is back with an even more rhythmic offering entitled Before You Go. This single is packed with some fantastically inventive effects, the vocals are once again simply perfection, and confidence just seems to exude from the artist now, it is like she has literally been set free.

Before You Go will have me repeating my words on her last single, this too has number one written all over it. The energy, happy intensity and beautifully charged vocals are sublime, and that flute through the track is utterly delightful, a guaranteed hit with ease, now excuse me, I just have to play it again.
